In the little town of Bethany,
there lived a man named Lazarus.

He had two sisters, Mary and Martha.

They were all friends with a man named Jesus.

But one day,
Lazarus got sick.

Martha and Mary
looked after him,
but Lazarus got worse
and worse...

“I know,” said Martha,
“I will tell our friend Jesus!
He can help!”

“Lord!” she gasped. “If only you had been here, Lazarus would not have died. But I know nothing is impossible with you—even after someone’s died and we’ve said our forever goodbyes.”

“You’re right, Martha,” Jesus said. “There is a day coming when we will say goodbye to saying goodbyes forever.”

This activity sheet is based on the book Goodbye to Goodbyes, part of the Tales That Tell the Truth Children's book series.

Every book in this series features beautiful illustrations and engaging story-telling that captures young imaginations but always remains faithful and true to the biblical text. Which means that adults will love these books as much as the kids they are reading to!

There's a series of board books, perfect for toddlers, or storybooks for children 3-6 which go deeper in to the richness of each story. There are also activity books (which this is a small part of) which are great for inspiring creativity as well as FREE lesson plans for a selection of books in the series which help parents teach the story to children.
